

Experiencing God's Presence in Your Art

Acts 17:28-29

“For in Him we live and move and have our being; as some of your own poets have said, ‘We are his offspring.’ Therefore since we are God’s offspring, we should not think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone – an image made by man’s design and skill.”

- ☞ Since “in Him we live and move and have our being,” what role should God’s presence play in your art (skill/craft)?

“An artist is a nourisher and a creator who knows that during the act of creation there is a collaboration. We do not create alone.”

Madeline L’Engle, Author of Walking On Water

- ☞ How would you describe God’s presence in your art? Is there a collaboration? If so, what have been the struggles / challenges?
- ☞ What breakthroughs would you like to see in terms of God’s presence in your art? How do you envision this happening?

*God is over all things,
Under all things
Outside all,
Within, but not enclosed,
Above, but not raised up,
Below, but not depressed,
Wholly above, presiding,
Wholly without, embracing,
Wholly within, filling.*
